

Eastern Neighborhoods Community Health Impact Assessment"Healthy City Vision"

Category	Elements
Adequate Housing	Affordable housing Safe housing Diverse housing types (i.e., family-sized units, single-family, multi-family, rental, ownership, co-ops, condos) Housing near commercial districts Economically and racially integrated housing Protection of existing housing
Healthy Economy	Locally owned businesses Living wage local jobs with benefits Local economy; Money flowing through the neighborhood
Access to Goods and Services	Neighborhood commercial district to provide daily needs (i.e., small, locally-owned businesses) Healthy and affordable foods (i.e., locally grown, organic, farmers markets) Community services and resources (i.e., youth, senior, health, after school, childcare) Community leisure activities (i.e., gyms, entertainment, sports and recreational facilities, community gardens and tool sheds) Affordable and accessible transit
Public Infrastructure	Quality schools Safe parks, playgrounds, sports/recreation areas and open space with amenities (i.e., benches, landscaping) Walkable streets and sidewalks with amenities (i.e., seating and resting areas) Multiple transportation options (i.e., pedestrian, bicycling, public transit, automobile) Clean and functional public transit Disability access Libraries Wildlife Protection of business districts Protection of existing infrastructure
Environmental Stewardship	Clean air Solar/renewable energy sources Green and/or sustainable infrastructure Local power Sustainable agriculture	Social Cohesion and Support	Schools Porches Neighborhood gardens Gathering places where community interacts, meet neighbors, gets involved) Active street life and uses
Safety and Security	Peace Clean and calm streets Wide sidewalks Well-lit streets and walkways Short blocks Narrow streets Crosswalks and countdown signals Bicycle and pedestrian protections	Social and Economic Diversity	Access for all to infrastructure and facilities Resident diversity (i.e., socioeconomic, family, youth, seniors) Cultural groups and centers Resources and organized activities for youth Healthy jobs (i.e., with pensions, insurance, good wages) Ability to make and spend money in the neighborhood Outdoor gathering places Peace